Goodbye and best wishes to some wonderful staff and community members - Hudson's Hope School will also be saying goodbye to Dee Romanchych, Amy Perry, Maria Prefontaine, Sarah Vickerson, and Dillon Donahue. Thank you all for caring so much for our students and for building such strong relationships so quickly! It has been very enjoyable to have you as part of our team. Please come back and visit often!

Ms. Brown's Math 7/8 students recently had their "Classroom Economy Auction". This auction has quickly become a popular event in our school, and there was a lot of fast paced purchasing! The auction had 80 items and the kids spent over $47,000 classroom dollars. Biggest item: hunting knife donated by Omar Kirkeeng, for $3100. Other top items included a magnetic dartboard from Naisby's for $2700, cake-in-a-mug from Sugarplums for $1700, honey from Guy Armitage for $1500, snacks from Margs for $1400, cinnamon buns from Cadyn Moraice-Budalich for $1300, and On the Rim gift certificate for $1200. Students will receive a full semester of high school elective credits, earn their level one carpentry certification, earn apprenticeship hours towards their journeyman's ticket, and build a home from the foundation, all the way to the "lock-up" stage. Also, they have the option of joining Mr. Koop on a field trip to Mexico to build homes for those in need. Congratulations to our students who have registered to take on this opportunity!

$2.1 million for 30 fish and wildlife projects approved for 2018 – 2019

Fish & Wildlife Compensation Program offers free wetland workshops

(PEACE REGION) Field season is underway for grant recipients working on the 30 fish and wildlife projects approved by the Fish & Wildlife Compensation Program's (FWCP) Peace Region Board. The FWCP is working to conserve and enhance fish and wildlife in watersheds impacted by existing BC Hydro dams and has just announced 118 fish and wildlife projects across the province.

In the Peace Region endangered caribou herds, Arctic Grayling, Bull Trout, amphibians, birds, and bats are among the many species that will benefit from the research and hands-on projects starting now.

"The projects approved by the FWCP in the Peace Region for 2018–2019 will benefit species, habitats and ecosystems impacted by existing dams, and we're very excited about the work planned for this year," says Chelsea Coady, Manager of the FWCP's Peace Region.

One of the projects FWCP is funding this year is a series of free, public wetland workshops in June and July, hosted by BC Wildlife Federation. The workshops, at Moberly Lake, Mackenzie, Tsay Keh Dene, and Fort St James, are aimed at building awareness about the value of wetlands and how to conserve and manage them. Find out how to register now for these workshops at fwcp.ca/wetland-workshops/.

"Projects like the wetland workshops will benefit many species, and support conservation and enhancement of important habitats. Many of the projects we fund will improve the science and understanding of species and their habitats, which is the first step in conservation planning," added Chelsea.

The FWCP is funded by BC Hydro each year. BC Hydro has water licence obligations in the Columbia and Peace regions, and has made voluntary commitments to address dam impacts in the Coastal Region. BC Hydro fulfills the applicable obligations through the work of the FWCP.

The FWCP is partnership of BC Hydro, the Province of B.C., Fisheries and Oceans Canada, First Nations, and Public Stakeholders to conserve and enhance fish and wildlife in watersheds impacted by existing BC Hydro dams. FWCP directs BC Hydro funds towards priority actions across its three regions.

DISTRICT OF HUDSON'S HOPE COUNCIL NEWS

This column is all about roads!

I met last week with representatives of the Ministry of Transportation and Infrastructure (MOTI) to talk about roads in and around the municipality. Here's what we talked about:

Passing lanes on Hwy #29

The criteria for putting in passing lanes is 200 vehicles per hour. Vehicle counts on Hwy #29 show 120 being the maximum, even in the busiest times. It's hard to justify passing lanes when even the maximum vehicle count is less than the criteria. We may be able to make a case that the type of traffic (heavily loaded, slow trucks) and long, steep, winding hills justify making Highway 29 an exception.

Canyon Drive Transfer Station Intersection

People have complained about poor visibility coming out of the transfer station. In response, MOTI will be shaving off the top of the berm and opening up the ditch area during the first two weeks of July. They can't go right into the ditch because there are utility lines in the right of way but they will be able to improve the line of sight.

Pedestrian Crossing at Canyon Drive & Hwy #29 (Post Office corner)

A flashing orange light was considered. Those are on municipalities' approved list but not yet on MOTI's. The Regional office made the case for using them at our corner as a pilot but the Province didn't approve. A pedestrian activated red light was also considered but rejected because they find that at low volume traffic crossings, the person presses the light, looks around, sees there is no traffic, and crosses against the light. Then when the light that the pedestrian activated changes, he's long gone, and drivers stopping at the red light get annoyed that no pedestrians are using the crossing. Eventually this pattern gets familiar and the drivers start running the red stop light.

So: they are planning to put in a large overhead sign with extra lighting and a painted crosswalk.

Farrell Creek Hill:

MOTI has done a lot of work on the hill. It's all one huge slide. The top of the hill is the top of the slide and the toe of it is in the river. They recognize that a significant re-alignment of the route is needed, but that would be a major project, costing roughly $10 million and their total annual budget for the whole North and South Peace, is only $20 million. This region is already budgeted extra because of the challenges here. The next largest region is the Cariboo and although it has more miles of road, it gets only $7 million. They will do the best they can with the resources that they have and we do appreciate that.

Peace to Kelly Lake Capacitors Project.

We want to hear from you!

BC Hydro is in the early planning stages of the Peace to Kelly Lake Capacitors Project (PKCP).

We're currently exploring three project alternatives. Visit bchydro.com/pkcp to complete the online feedback form and provide us with your input on this stage of the project by July 20, 2018.

The Project will ensure the capacity of the existing transmission lines can accommodate all expected generation in the Peace Region and safely deliver electricity to homes and businesses throughout the province.

If you'd like to be added to our stakeholder list to receive project updates and notifications please email projects@bchydro.com or call 1 866 647 3334.

Hudson's Hope Visitor Centre

Did everyone enjoy the month of June that zipped by? A great variety of weather – some like it hot and some like it cold. I guess it depends on what you're doing.

The Austrian bicyclist that was en route from Whitehorse to Nova Scotia probably enjoyed the cooler rainy weather he experienced here. I would think the European couple that shipped their RV to Canada's East Coast and made their way to Alaska and were travelling this region with a destination of Chile, S.A. were appreciative of the warm weather we were experiencing. There have been visitors in from New Zealand, Australia, China, Brazil, Europe and then many states in the U.S. such as Alaska, North Carolina, Georgia and of course the coastal states like Washington, Oregon and California. And guess what? They all love it here! The Peace River, the relaxed pace of life, the loveliness of the town provided by the public works as in clean streets, groomed grass and of course the flowers. Not only do we have our two hundred and thirteen years of history to talk about but also the new progressive parts of our history like the solar array or the impressive fibre optics available in a small community. After offering the visitors our camping options, outdoor recreation opportunities like the guided hikes and special events, I can say that I am very proud of Hudson's Hope community.

Drop by the Visitor Centre for any provincial or regional maps, visitor guides and of course we have lots of new merchandise – pennants, magnets, camo ball caps, toques & T-shirts and crisp white 100% cotton T-shirts and tank tops all with the Hudson's Hope logo. See you soon!

Police Report: June 2018

Hudson's Hope RCMP responded to approximately 37 calls for service over the last four weeks. During the month of May, the Hudson's Hope RCMP issued 84 Motor Vehicle Act Warnings and Violation Tickets. Three check stops were conducted in an effort to combat impaired driving.

On May 26th, 2018, The Hudson's Hope RCMP received several calls regarding a possible impaired driver on Hwy 29. The vehicle was eventually spotted leaving a residential driveway on Farrell Creek Road and failed to stop for police when attempting to pull it over. The driver was identified by a witness and eight charges will be forwarded for charge approval including dangerous operation of a motor vehicle, drive while disqualified, drive while prohibited and failing to stop for police. File 2018-152 refers.

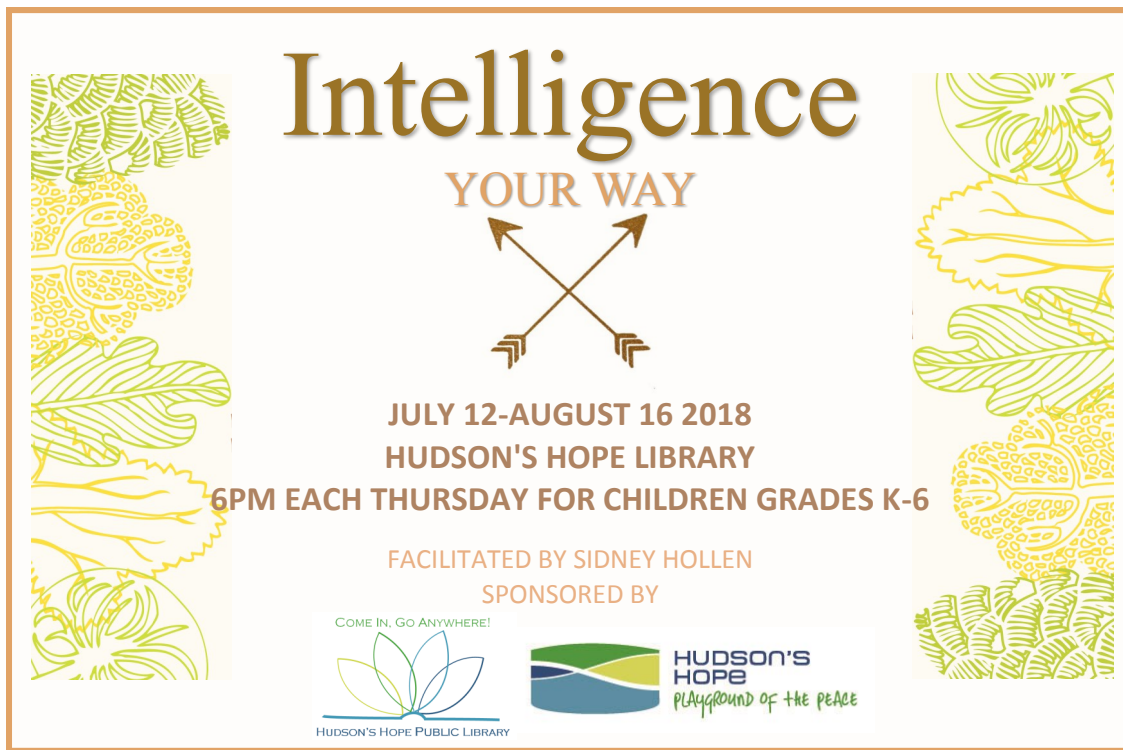

On May 30th, 2018, The Hudson's Hope RCMP responded to a complaint of a dog that had attacked a horse on a local street. The dog and its owner had left the scene prior to police arrival and have yet to be identified. A local citizen, Rock Robert, stopped to intervene and sustained significant injuries that required surgery, after being kicked by the horse. The RCMP commends Mr. Robert on his quick intervention and assistance to his fellow citizens. We wish him a speedy and full recovery.

On May 30th, 2018, The Hudson's Hope RCMP received a report of theft of several barrels of jet fuel from the airport. Anyone with information regarding this incident can call the local detachment or Crimestoppers.

On June 16th, 2018, a driver was stopped on Hwy 29 and found to be prohibited from driving. The vehicle was impounded and charges are being forwarded for approval.

Anyone with information regarding current or past investigations can contact the Hudson's Hope RCMP directly at 250-783-5241 or anonymously through Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-8477. Multiple Intelligences

Multiple Intelligences was created by Alfred Binet and is a way of identifying ourselves by proving that we are all diverse and “smart” in different ways. This program contributes to children having a growth mindset and building their confidence while learning about themselves!

The program goes into depth of 9 different types of intelligences, math and logic (more fun than it sounds I promise), musical and rhythmic (singing and dancing), naturalistic (our community connections), intrapersonal and interpersonal (teamwork and personal time), visual and arts, verbal and linguistic (talking and writing/ drawing), body athletics, and existentialism (the connection to the world). In order to understand these topics a bit better children in elementary grades K-6 are welcome to take part in the different activities we have throughout the summer. We are going to be exploring who we are using art, building, music, games, and most importantly our minds of course!

This program will run 6 Thursday evenings of the summer starting on July 12th 2018 and running to August 16th 2018, starting at 6pm. For more information on the individual days please feel free to email me at Sidney.hollen@gmail.com .

Hope for Health News

This spring, Hope for Health Society obtained a grant that allowed us to offer a free afterschool program, "Living it Up" for students Kindergarten to Grade 7. The program was a huge success with 40 students enrolled. A huge thank you to all of them for taking part in this program.

There were two components to the program. Every session started with a healthy snack and a brief nutrition discussion. One day focused on physical fitness. The activities varied from running, dance, fitness routines, movement games, athletic testing, and agility training. The alternate day was an arts and craft day. Students enjoyed woodcraft, painting, drawing and creative arts. Each session ended with relaxation/stress management exercises. We also got to explore and discover the great outdoors with a river hike and enjoyed a stroll to the Museum to check out the displays and the new exhibit.

Hope for Health was able to employ a student assistant. Bella Lucas-Jarnigan was an awesome student leader, and she accumulated some excellent skills to add to her resume. She will also be able to take advantage of the BCRPA's High Five training. Many thanks to the other student volunteers who offered to help: Quinn Rice, Leland Douglas, Xavier Beam, Celina Fequet, and Christopher Fequet.

This program is made possible through funding provided by the Government of British Columbia and support from the BC Recreation and Parks Association (BCRPA). It was also strongly supported by the District of Hudson's Hope, Hudson's Hope School and a generous donation from the Lion's Club.

Hope for Health is pleased to announce that we have received another grant that will allow us to continue the program in the fall. What a great opportunity!

Hope for Health is a local society geared to bringing health and wellness to our community. In the past, we have offered free healthy dinners, brought in guest speakers, and organized fitness events. We are also proud to bring to you That Dam Run. If you would like to get involved, give back by volunteering a little, share some resources, or make a donation, please contact: hope4healthsociety@gmail.com or contact Greta Goddard (250-783-0855) or Bill Lindsay (250-783-5557)

Protective Services

Hudson's Hope Fire Rescue will begin providing medical first responder services within the District of Hudson's Hope on June 23rd 2018. This new service will see District fire fighters assisting BC Ambulance staff in the provision of timely and high-quality pre-hospital care to residents and visitors of our municipality.

Fire department responders are required to complete approximately 40 hours of training, pass written and practical exams prior to receiving their license from the BC Emergency Medical Assistant Licensing Branch, and comply with the Emergency Health Services Act and the Emergency Medical Assistant Regulations. Fire department responders are also bound by the same Code of Ethics as other Emergency Medical Assistants within the province of British Columbia.

There are currently approximately 300 departments in British Columbia providing this service.

First Responders will be endorsed to provide a number of services including:

- cardiopulmonary resuscitation;
- basic wound and fracture management;
- maintenance of airways and ventilation;
- use of airway management techniques including oropharyngeal airways, oral suction devices and oxygen-supplemented mask devices to assist ventilation;
- use of an automatic or semi-automatic external defibrillator;
- cervical collar application and spinal immobilization on a long spine board;
- administration of oxygen;
- administration of oral glucose;
- emergency childbirth;
- and ventilation using pocket mask and bag/valve/mask devices.

Fire department responders will always respond in conjunction with BC Ambulance Service, and will be simply another step in the pre-hospital care continuum. First responders will not transport patients, and will be under the direction of BC Ambulance staff when both agencies are on scene.

If you have any questions regarding this new service please feel free to contact the Director of Protective Services Robert Norton at (250) 783-9901 for further information.

The poster features a background image of a baseball field. In the foreground, a young player in a blue shirt and grey shorts is swinging a bat. To his right, a coach in a dark shirt and cap is crouched, ready to catch the ball. In the background, three silhouettes of men in caps stand against a clear blue sky. The text is overlaid on the image in various fonts and colors.
